Subject:- Regulations for Exits and Withdrawals by Government Employees under New Pension Scheme (NPS)

No.FEM (PC)7/2007/Pt.III/226. - The Government of Meghalaya has introduced the New Defined Contribution Scheme with effect from 1st April, 2010 vide Office Memorandum No.FEM (PC)7/2007/Pt.II/66, dated 24th March, 2010. It is applicable to all new entrants to State Government Service joining on or after 1st April, 2010. As of now the State Government has not framed any regulations for Exit and Withdrawals by the Government employees under the New Pension Scheme.

The new Pension architecture as per PFRDA (Exits & Withdrawals under the NPS) Regulations 2015, Concerning Government Sector are reproduced below:-

1. Exit from National Pension System for Government Sector Subscribers

A Government sector subscriber shall exit from the National Pension System in the manners specified hereunder namely :- (a) On attaining the age of superannuation (b) for subscriber who before attaining the age of superannuation voluntary retires or exits and (c) for subscribers who before attaining the age of superannuation, dies as follows:-

(a) On attaining the age of Superannuation :-

Where the subscriber who, upon the age of superannuation as prescribed by the service rules applicable to him or her, retires, then at least forty per cent out of the accumulated pension wealth of such subscriber shall be mandatorily utilized for purchase of annuity providing for a monthly or any other periodical pension and the balance of the accumulated pension wealth, after such utilization, shall be paid to the subscriber in lump sum.

- (i) The following shall be the default annuity contract that will be applicable and wherein the annuity contract shall provide for annuity for life of the subscriber and his or her spouse (if any) with provision for return of purchase price of the annuity and upon the demise of such subscriber, the annuity to be reissued to the family members in the order specified here under at a premium rate prevalent at that time of purchase of such annuity by utilizing the purchase price required to be returned under the annuity contract (until all the family members in the order specified below are covered).
- (a) Living dependant mother of the deceased subscriber.
- (b) Living dependant father of the deceased subscriber.

After the coverage of all the family members specified above, the purchase price shall be returned to the surviving children of the subscriber and in the absence of children, the legal heirs of the subscriber, as may be applicable;

The subscriber who wishes to opt out of the default option mentioned above and wishes to choose the annuity contract of his choice from the available annuity types or contracts with the annuity service providers, shall be required to specifically opt for such an option.

- (ii) Where the subscriber does not desire to withdraw the balance amount, after purchase of mandatory annuity, such subscriber shall have the option to defer the withdrawal of the lump sum amount until he or she, attains the age of seventy years, provided the subscriber intimates his or her intention to do so in writing in the specified form at least fifteen days before the attainment of age of superannuation to the National Pension System Trust or an intermediary or entity authorized by the Authority for this purpose;
- (iii) Where the subscriber desires to defer the purchase of annuity, he or she shall have the option to do so for a maximum period of three years from the date of attainment of age of superannuation, provided the subscriber intimates his or her intention to do so in writing in the specified form at least fifteen days before the attainment of age of superannuation to the National Pension System Trust or an intermediary or entity authorized by the Authority for this purpose. It shall be a condition precedent to opt for such deferment of annuity purchase that in case if the death of the subscriber occurs such due date of purchase of an annuity after the deferment, the annuity shall

- (iv) mandatorily be purchased by the spouse (if any) providing for annuity for life of the spouse with provision for return of purchase price of the annuity and upon the demise of such spouse be re-issued to the family members in the order of preference provided hereunder at a premium rate prevalent at the time of purchase of the annuity, utilizing the purchase price required to be
- (a) living dependent mother of the deceased subscriber;
- (b) living dependent father of the deceased subscriber.

After the coverage of all such members, the purchase price shall be returned to the surviving children of the subscriber and in absence of children legal heirs of the subscribers as applicable;

- (v) where the subscriber desires to defer the withdrawal of lump sum amount or, the purchase of annuity, the subscriber shall be allowed to do so, provided the subscriber agrees to bear the maintenance charges of the Permanent Retirement Account, including the charges payable to the central record keeping agency, pension fund. Trustee Bank or any other intermediary as may be applicable from time to time;
- (vi) where the accumulated pension wealth in the Permanent Retirement Account of the subscriber is equal to or less than a sum of two lakh rupees, the subscriber shall have the option to withdraw the entire accumulated pension wealth without purchasing annuity and upon such exercise of this option, the right of such subscriber to receive any pension or other amount under the National Pension System or from the government shall extinguish.

(b) For subscribers who before attaining the age of superannuation, voluntarily retires or Exits:-

Where the subscriber who before attaining the age of superannuation prescribed by the service rules applicable to him or her, voluntarily retires or exits, then at least eighty per cent out of the accumulated pension wealth of the subscriber shall mandatorily be utilized for purchase of annuity and the balance of the accumulated pension wealth after such utilization shall be paid to the subscriber in lump sum

Provided that the annuity contract shall provide for annuity for life of the subscriber and his or her spouse (if any) with provision for return of purchase price of the annuity and upon the demise of such subscriber the annuity be re-issued to the family members in the order specified hereunder at a premium rate prevalent at the time of purchase of the annuity, utilizing the purchase price required to be returned under the annuity contract (until all the members given below are covered):-

- (i) living dependent mother of the deceased subscriber;
- (ii) living dependent father of the deceased subscriber.

After the coverage of all such members, the purchase price shall be returned to the surviving children of the subscriber and in absence of children the legal heirs of the subscriber as may be applicable.

Provided that if the accumulated pension wealth of the subscriber is more than one lakh rupees but the age of the subscriber is less than the minimum age required for purchasing any annuity from any of the empanelled annuity service providers as chosen by such subscriber, such subscriber shall continue to subscribe to the National Pension System until he or she attains the age of eligibility for purchase of any annuity;

Provided further that if the accumulated pension wealth of the subscriber is equal to or less than one lakh rupees, such subscriber shall have the option to withdraw the entire accumulated pension wealth without purchasing any annuity and upon such exercise of this option the right of the subscriber to receive any pension or other amounts under the National Pension System shall extinguish and any such exercise of this option by the subscriber, before the regulations are notified, shall be deemed to have made in accordance with this regulation;

(c) For subscribers who before attaining the age of superannuation, dies:-

Where the subscriber who, before attaining the age of superannuation, dies, then at least eighty percent out of the accumulated pension wealth of the-subscriber shall be mandatorily utilized for purchase of annuity and balance pension wealth shall be paid as lump sum to the nominee or nominees or legal heirs as the case may be of such subscriber.

Provided that

- (i) The annuity contract shall provide for annuity for life of the spouse of the subscriber (if any) with provision for return of purchase price of the annuity and upon the demise of such spouse be re-issued to the family members in the order specified hereunder at the premium at the time of purchase of the annuity utilizing the purchase price required to be returned under the contract until all the members given below are covered;
- (a) Living dependent mother of the deceased subscriber;
- (b) Living dependent father of the deceased subscriber.

After the coverage of all such members, the purchase price shall be returned to the surviving children of the subscriber and in absence of children the legal heirs of the subscriber as applicable.

(ii) Provided further that if the accumulated pension wealth in the permanent retirement account of the subscriber at the time of his death is equal to or less than two lakh rupees, the nominee or legal heirs as the case may be, shall have the option to withdraw the entire accumulated pension wealth without requiring to purchase any annuity and upon such exercise of this option the right of the family members to receive any pension or other amounts under the National Pension System shall extinguish.
